

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL. XIX.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1898.

NO. 28.

AUCTION.—Don't forget to go to James Gillon's and examine his fine clothing now being sold at auction. The greatest opportunity of your life to get fine clothing at your own price.

Piano for sale. Call on Mrs. G. E. Trisler, Owingsville.

There was some vivid lightning and rumbling thunder Saturday afternoon.

Oliver Hendricks, of Sherburne, is now on Uncle Sam's rolls for a pension of $6 per month.

The mad-dog season is here; also the time when dogs make their heaviest raids on the sheep.

Owing to the high water Saturday the mails to Hillsboro and Bethel were water-bound here.

The Tax Supervisors finished their work last week. It is thought that they increased assessments about $100,000.

Houses not absolutely waterproof leaked more or less during the heavy rains and wind Saturday and Sunday night.

Elder B. F. Parker sold his home place, west of town, to Wm. H. Rice at $80 per acre. There are about 19 acres of it.

John Daugherty, of Okla. neighborhood, remarked last week that he delivered three crops of tobacco at one load on a two-horse wagon.

J. H. Richart sold to Mrs. Ida Elliott the property at the south end of State Avenue, known as the Frank Goodpastor place, for $1,650 cash.

Dudley Crouch has bought a lot on State Avenue adjoining the property of Mrs. Leo Wagner and will build a residence at once to be completed by March 1st.

Elder J. Fred Jones, of Stanford, Illinois, a Bath county boy, Secretary of the Illinois Christian Missionary Convention, has The Outlook's thanks for some neat little calendars.

WHITE OAK TOLLGATE RENTING.—On Saturday, Feb. 5th, 1898, at Owingsville, Bath Co., Ky., we will receive sealed bids for the renting of the lower (near Wyoming) tollgate on the White Oak turnpike road. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

H. B. BROWN, President.

WILLIAMS & CO., of Owingsville, Ky., will, on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 5, 1898, at R. G. Giddell & Son's office, rent their tollgate near Owingsville for one year from March 1st, 1898. Said renting will be by sealed bids, the company reserving the right to reject all bids.

J. B. GOODPASTER, Pres.

REFUSED TO PAY TOLL.—Pat T. O. of Craig, passed through I. D. Garner's tollgate on the O. & M. T. Garner tollgate one day last week and told Garner that he had quit paying toll. Garner had to try to pay toll, before Judge W. G. Ramsey, who fined T. O. ten dollars and costs, amounting to about $14. Not paying nor replying, T. O. went on to jail.

NOTICE.—The case on the Owingsville, Bath Co. & Sherburne road will be heard in the Circuit Court, Ky., on Feb. 14th, 1898. Court day, unless otherwise disposed of before that date, the company reserving the right to reject any and all bids.

THE WEAT.—Monday was a clear, bright, sunny day, as fine a day as could be wished at the time of year. The balance of the past week has been generally gloomy and rainy, some extremely heavy and long, with much rain falling. The water courses have all been booming. The wind at intervals has blown with terrific force. Lightning and thunder occurred on two days.

THIS MEANS YOU! READ AND PONDER UPON IT!—We would respectfully represent that after waiting patiently for several years (in many cases) we will now have to call upon our customers to call and settle their accounts, many of them having run since 1894. We cannot and will not run them any longer and will expect settlement by not later than February Court day. Should you fail don't blame us if they are settled by process of law. Respy.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

COURT TWO, ONE ESCAPED.—Two men by the names of Mitchell and Wood, running a buckaroo wagon, went through a toll-gate on the O. & M. T. Sterling turnpike and refused to pay toll. The President got a warrant and sent Deputy Sheriff S. C. Bascom after them. As Ramsey and Mitchell here, Judge Ramsey fined Mitchell ten dollars and costs. Not paying nor replying, he was sent to jail.

FATAL TO SHEEP.—Marion Moore, of Forge Hill, cut down in his pasture some shrubs and saplings of wild cherry. His sheep went to feeding on the buds and six died and some others took sick before he found out the cause.

AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—Elder John W. McGarvey, of Lexington, with the simplicity characteristic of the Christian Church, ordained Elbert Dawson as a minister at the Christian Church Sunday morning. A large congregation was present.

At night Elder McGarvey preached what is denominated by his hearers as one of the clearest and most logical Scriptural sermons heard here in many years, being specially characterized by deliberation and feeling. The attendance was large and the sermon deeply appreciated.

DIED IN MISSOURI.—It is learned that Samuel C. Markland, of Buncheon, Missouri, died a short time ago of pneumonia, and that his brother Garret had left that place for Texas. Samuel Markland was a son of the late Jonathan Markland, of near this town, and a brother of James Markland, of White Oak Creek. Deceased was a thrifty farmer and prospered well. He was married and had some children. He left this country from near Wyoming when a young man and had been back on a few brief visits. He was a man of good, strong mind and a good citizen in every respect.

LOCAL TOBACCO SALES.—Peed & Goodpastor's purchases in Bethel precinct, Silas Corbin's at 10c; Thornton Snelling's at 10c; Frank Johnson's at 9c; on Prickly Ash, Stanton Hamilton's at 6c.

Purchases of Samuel Latham and Caleb Ratliff on Washington Branch, Ronnie Horseman's at 10c; one crop of James Hedger & Sons at 8c and two crops at 9c; on Prickly Ash, James R. Manley's at 10c; on White Oak, Thomas Snedegar's at 9c.

James W. Lane's purchases: on East Fork of Flat Creek, Foster Stephens' at 8c.

Purchases of John W. Corbin and George Boyd, of Bethel; near Reynoldsville, crop of W. D. Boyd and Pliny Moore at 8c; Wm. Snelling's at 7c; Taylor Doggett's at 7c; Allen Burns' at 7c.

John W. Corbin's purchases: near Reynoldsville, crop of Martin Davidson and C. R. Scott at 7c; crop of R. L. Williamson and C. R. Scott at 7c; on Prickly Ash, Riley Chandler's at 6c.

TOBACCO REPORT.—EXPRESSLY FOR THE OUTLOOK BY J. S. PHELPS & CO., PLANTERS WAREHOUSE.—LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 22d, 1898.—The rush to sell has continued this week. Prices for all heavy-bodied, rich Burley have been active and strong during the entire week. We think the better grade of leaf, that has been selling from $16 up, is higher than it was last week. The record for fine leaf was advanced a cent this week, a new hhd. from Clark Co. selling at $22.50 per hundred, which is the highest price in any market. Some of the hhd. sold during this week from $18.75 to $21. At the opening of the season Tuesday bright trashes and lugs seemed dark and heavy, but they recovered on Thursday and sold at about the same prices that ruled during the week. We believe the dark, gloomy weather that has prevailed for the past two weeks was partially responsible for this irregularity, as the light has been such that it was impossible for buyers to accurately judge the color. The bright lugs and trashes when lacking in body, that will sell from $7.50 to $10.50, still seem to us lower in proportion than any other grade of tobacco.

The offerings of Old Burley were a little more liberal and prices on the common grades that sell below $7 were very satisfactory to sellers. The grades selling between $7 and $9 also show an improvement over last week's prices. The better leaf that sells from $10 to $13.50 does not show any improvement. The competition on this kind is very limited. We cannot help thinking that this grade of tobacco will bring more money in the next 30 days.

The offerings of Dark have been small. The few hhd. that appeared with length brought satisfactory prices. But the demand for the real common, nondescript leaf, lugs and trashes is very limited and prices are about the same as they have been for the past three or four weeks.

POSTOFFICE ROBBERY.—Wednesday night of last week a corner was broken out of one of the glass of the front windows of the postoffice, the sash unlocked, the window raised and the room entered with burglarious intent. Postmaster Byron keeps all valuables in his safe at night after he closes up the letters that had been put in the office for mailing since the mail has been made up that afternoon were opened and rifled of their money contents. It is probable that only a small sum was secured, as the large proportion of such business is now done by check, draft or postoffice order. The robbers containing checks and drafts were opened, but the contents left. A small watch and some watch chains were missed out of his stock by S. D. Thompson.

The person suspected was a colored boy named Clarence Snedegar.

He was arrested and taken before Judge Ramsey Friday afternoon. His trial was then set for Saturday afternoon. He was placed in jail. Before his trial Saturday he confessed his guilt, implicating Buck Powers, a colored boy, who was arrested and placed in jail. When Clarence was brought before the Court Saturday afternoon his written confession was in evidence. He also turned over to the officers a small watch and chain, a ring and fifty cents in money, that, he said, was his share of the robbery. The Judge held him over to Circuit Court, fixing his bond at $500. He failed to give bond and was sent back to jail.

Buck Powers' trial was set for Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Buck Powers had his examining trial Monday afternoon and was discharged for lack of evidence on which to hold him over.

U. S. Marshal James, of Louisville, ordered his Deputy Pressley Jackson, of Salt Lake, to take charge of Clarence Snedegar and deliver him to the nearest U. S. Commissioner, who is the one at Winchester. The authorities here refused to give Clarence up. Deputy Jackson notified Marshal James to that effect. Which set of officers will win can only be conjectured. So Clarence is between two fires, and the Federal government fire is a mighty hot one.

Town Marshal Denton worked up the case. He was ably assisted by Deputy U. S. Marshal Jackson.
